Congratulations to the TMS Patriots Pen Essay Winners for the Veterans of Foreign War Post 824

Please see the following message shared with TMS:

Thank you so much for participating in this year's Veterans of Foreign Wars Patriot's Pen essay contest. We received many more entries this year compared to the last few years, and I'd like to send a special thank you to the staff at Tabb Middle School for ensuring their students were given the opportunity to participate with us.

Each entry we received was carefully evaluated by a team of us here at VFW Post 824 and was considered for criteria such as theme knowledge, theme development, and clarity of ideas. Each entry was given a contestant number and when the team evaluated them, no information about the author was known to any of the judges. We like to keep everything as fair as possible.

Our winners for the 2019 Patriot's Pen essay contest here at VFW Post 824 are as follows:

1st: Jacob Grieme

2nd: Jatin Tiwari

3rd: Sinaya Hairston

For those students who did not place this year, please know that this was a very difficult decision and your essays were all wonderful. Do not let it discourage you from trying each year throughout middle school and then jumping into the Voice of Democracy contest once you are in high school.

You are the future of our country, and if these essays and your beliefs are any indication of where we are headed, then the future is certainly a bright one.

Again, thank you to everyone for participating!

V/r,

Caola J. Rood

Adjutant, VFW Post 824
