Directions: Use your own paper to answer the following questions. Be sure to use details from the book to support your review. All answers must be written in complete sentences. Work should be proofread before submitting it for a grade. Be sure to staple this sheet to your review.

1. Introduce your book. Be sure to include the title, author, and genre of your book.
2. Describe the setting or settings of the book that you read.
3. Choose one character from your book to fully describe. Be sure to explain why you chose this character to write about.
4. What is the main problem or conflict in this story? Remember, don't give away the ending.
5. Would you recommend this book to others to read? You must include at least three reasons to support your recommendation. Remember to think about what the author did to make you enjoy the book. If you would not recommend the book to others, you must also support that decision with three reasons.

Don't forget to look over your written responses carefully before turning this in to Ms. Harris.
